Luvison Named Publisher Of (Sayre) Morning Times

SAYRE, Pa. (AP) - Veteran newspaper executive Kelly Luvison has been named publisher of the Morning Times.

Luvison, 48, was also named president of River Valley News Group, a division of the Sample News Group that includes the Morning Times and daily newspapers in Milton, Pa., and Oswego, N.Y. Sample News Group purchased the three papers from GateHouse Media Inc. in September for an undisclosed sum.

Luvison has published newspapers in Hornell and Canandaigua, N.Y., and Waynesboro, Pa., and has also been an editor and held other executive positions. He graduated from West Virginia University's School of Journalism.

George "Scoop" Sample, CEO of Sample News, and his wife published the Sayre paper from 1977 to 1991 before starting Sample News Group, which owns newspapers, magazines and printing plants in five states.

Poconos Ski Resorts Opening Early In Eastern Pa.

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP) - Ski resorts in the Pocono Mountains in eastern Pennsylvania are getting ready for an early opening, thanks to the recent cold weather and snow.

Big Boulder opened its Freedom Park, a terrain park, Thursday night.

Bear Creek Resort in Berks County plans to open its terrain park Friday and additional ski runs Saturday, two weeks earlier than ever before.

Blue Mountain Ski Resort general manager Dennis Krell says snowmaking requires temperatures that are at or around the freezing mark depending on humidity, but optimally 27 to 28 degrees or lower. The colder it gets, Krell says, the more efficient the snowmaking machines.

Blue Mountain hopes to open the Friday after Thanksgiving. Krell says it's never opened before Dec. 1.

A spokesman says Camelback is planning a Nov. 28 opening.

PA Crash Victim Struck And Killed By Fire Truck

WIND GAP, Pa. (AP) - Police say a man who survived a one-car crash in northeastern Pennsylvania was then struck and killed by a passing fire truck. The accident happened around 11 a.m. Thursday on Route 33 north of Wind Gap.

Police say the car had gone off the road and plunged down a steep embankment at a vineyard.

Investigators say they found the man's wedding ring on his car seat. Pictures of two young children were propped up against the dashboard.
